

Freedom Sunday

*Montgomery United Methodist
Fellowship Hall
28325 Kemptown Road, Damascus MD, 20872*

Join us on September 22nd

Learn more about Human Trafficking and how we can make a difference in our community.

6:30 pm Immersion Exhibit

A scenario of a sex trafficked victim

7 pm Speaker: Beth Halley

Community Impact Liaison, The Samaritan Women

The Samaritan Women

INSTITUTE for
SHELTER CARE

Beth Halley is the community Impact Liaison at The Samaritan Women. As a modern day abolitionist, Ms. Halley is on the front lines of educating communities on the greatest of social injustices....human trafficking. Ms. Halley is also a member of various county anti-human trafficking task forces, and is an active member of AGAST, the Advocacy Group Against Slavery and Trafficking.